

ASSIGNMENTS IN LITIGATION SUPPORT

Members of the professional staff of Micon International have broad experience in advising clients involved in litigation. Assignments undertaken in this area include technical assistance in litigation, mineral property valuation, economic and market analysis, advice on industry practice and providing expert witness services.

GOLD

Aird & Berlis, Barristers and Solicitors: Technical assistance in litigation regarding a gold mining operation in Canada.

Glimmer vs. Exall Resources: Opinion on standard mineral industry practice.

Investor Group: Valuation of a gold property in Greece relating to the interest of former joint venturers.

Ontex vs. Metalore: Preliminary valuation of a gold property in Northern Ontario.

Weir & Foulds, Barristers and Solicitors: Expert witness in litigation regarding ownership of gold property in western Ontario.

Barrick Gold: Expert witness in arbitration.

United States Department of Justice: Technical advisors in litigation concerning placer gold properties in Alaska.

Confidential client: Expert witness in arbitration concerning property in Mongolia.

POTASH

Law firm, US: Advice provided in connection with an anti-dumping action brought by certain United States potash producers.

Law firm, Canada: Financial evaluation of a major Canadian potash mining operation, technical and market analysis provided in connection with litigation.

ASSIGNMENTS IN LITIGATION SUPPORT

URANIUM

Cigar Lake Mining Corporation: Technical advice in connection with the loss of a tunnel boring machine during a test mining program.

United States Department of Justice: Litigation support and expert witness involving the value of a uranium property in New Mexico.

United States Department of Justice: Litigation support and expert witness in respect of responsibility for environmental liabilities from an historic uranium mining operation.

Mount Taylor Mine, New Mexico: Assessment of operating conditions.

Elliot Lake, Ontario: Evaluation of a uranium mining operation, Ontario.

Freeport Uranium: In respect of arbitration with two European utilities.

Gulf Oil: Uranium litigation.

COAL

United States Department of Justice: A number of assignments have been completed including:

- Valuation and litigation support regarding certain coal properties in Montana.
- Litigation in and evaluation of certain coal properties in Bledsoe and Van Buren Counties, Tennessee.
- Litigation in respect of certain coal resources in Morgan County, Tennessee.
- Litigation in respect of certain brown coal resources in Wyoming.

PUMICE

United States Department of Justice: Litigation support in connection with certain pumice properties in New Mexico.

ASSIGNMENTS IN LITIGATION SUPPORT

ASBESTOS

Johns-Manville and Eternit: Regarding expropriation of the Advocate asbestos mine, Newfoundland.

LAND AND SHAREHOLDER DISPUTES

Cyprus-Anvil: Litigation with minority shareholders, Vancouver, British Columbia.

Lac Minerals: In connection with land dispute, Toronto, Ontario.

Silica sand producer: In connection with land condemnation, New Jersey.

Small landholders: Litigation respecting royalties, Texas.